Print Photocopying

What is a copy?

A "copy" is a print copy made in the form of a photocopy, fax, acetate, or slide. For the sole purpose of making classroom presentations, a digital copy may be made for inclusion in, for example, a PowerPoint presentation (no further copying or transmission is allowed).

What can you copy?

For non-coursepack copying, you can copy up to 10% of a published work (or 15% for coursepack copying) or the following, whichever is greater:

- An entire newspaper article or a page.
- An entire single short story, play, poem, essay or article from a book or periodical issue (including a set of conference proceedings) containing other works.
- An entire single item of print music from a book or periodical issue containing other kinds of work.
- An entire entry from an encyclopedia, dictionary, annotated bibliography or similar reference work.
- An entire reproduction of an artistic work (including drawing, sculpture, painting, prints, architectural works of art or works of artistic craftsmanship) from a book or periodical issue containing other works.
- One chapter, provided it is no more than 20% of a book.
