

We Copy Right

This library has signed a licence with Access Copyright, which gives permission to photocopy from a vast repertoire of published books, magazines and newspapers. Under this licence, library patrons may make copies on a self-serve basis. This licence also covers copying done by library staff for internal and administrative use, as well as for a patron if the library does not offer self-serve copiers or if a patron has a physical disability.

However, there are limits to how much of a work you may copy under the licence.

Here are some general guidelines for copying:

You can photocopy up to 10% of a published work or the following, whichever is greater:

- an entire chapter which is no more than 20% of a book
- an entire newspaper article or page
- one short story, play, poem, essay or article from a book or periodical containing other published works
- one entire entry from an encyclopedia, dictionary, or reference book
- one published photograph or illustration
- an entire report of a legal case from a periodical issue or volume containing other reports.

This licence does NOT allow you to copy:

- Crown publications (excluding those published by the Crown in Quebec)
- print music
- workbooks, study guides, solutions manuals, instructor's manuals and coursepacks
- letters to the editor
- advertisements
- publications containing proprietary information (such as newsletters)
- works containing a notice expressly prohibiting copying under licence with a collective society
- works appearing on the Exclusions List (ask staff for details)

For more information about this licence or to request permission to copy beyond these limits, please contact Access Copyright. Call 800 893 5777 or email permissions@accesscopyright.ca.
