

This Exclusions List will take effect 60 days following its receipt by the licensee.

Subject to the following and the terms of your specific licence with Access Copyright, your agreement with Access Copyright permits copying from Published Works, including literary, dramatic, artistic and musical works, in the form of books, periodicals, magazines and newspapers. There are certain categories of works and specific Published Works that Access Copyright does not currently license.

Unless otherwise specified, your licence with Access Copyright does not include copying from the following:

- Works published by copyright owners who have informed Access Copyright that they do not want their publications copied under a licence with Access Copyright. All works from each copyright owner are excluded unless otherwise noted. The list of excluded works is found below.
- Published Works in the following categories:
 - Publications containing a notice expressly prohibiting copying under licence from a reproduction rights organization
 - Sheet Music
 - Works published by Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Canada or any province or territory, other than the province of Quebec

Notwithstanding this Schedule, a work may be copied under your agreement if the publication contains a notice authorizing copying under a licence from Access Copyright or another reproduction rights organization, or you are otherwise advised by notice from Access Copyright.

This Schedule is subject to change and is effective in accordance with the terms of your licence with Access Copyright.
